

TeleCommunication Systems Announces 7th Annual SwiftLink Users Forum

ANNAPOLIS, MD -- (Marketwire) -- 03/10/11 -- TeleCommunication Systems, Inc. (TCS) (NASDAQ: TSYS), a world leader in highly reliable and secure mobile communication technology, today announced that the 7th annual SwiftLink® Users Forum will take place April 12-14, 2011 in Tampa, FL at the Saddlebrook Resort. This exclusive TCS event gathers thought leaders to share knowledge and best practices related to highly secure deployable communication initiatives. In addition, TCS presents product roadmaps, research and development initiatives as well as hands-on demonstrations and training classes for its SwiftLink deployable communication suite.

The SwiftLink suite of deployable communications solutions provides the seamless, secure connectivity and application accessibility that government agencies and warfighters need for mission success. TCS' robust portfolio of communications products includes a variety of flyaway and fixed VSAT terminals, executive communications packages, baseband network packages, as well as a host of complementary accessories and options. Key customers of TCS deployable satellite communications include agencies of the US Departments of Defense, State, and Homeland Security, mobile operators, and blue-chip corporations.

During the two-day symposium attendees can hear Major General (Ret.) Charles Henry present a keynote address titled, "Military Program Management: Influencing Your Workforce," and attend educational sessions such as:

- Advances in VSAT Technology, Tony Wilkey (AvL Technologies)
- Alternative Fuel Cells, Steve Graves (Acumentrics)
- Tropo Educational Session, Reid Kinder (TCS)
- Deployable Secure Cellular Technology, Brendan Reilly (SiRRAN)
- IRIS (Internet Routing in Space) Technology and Commercialization, LTG (Ret.) Steve Boutelle (Cisco)

"In order to understand and meet deployable satellite communications demands, we must have ongoing and direct dialogue with current and prospective customers," said Michael Bristol, senior vice president and general manager of government solutions at TCS. "Our customers have relied on SwiftLink solutions to ensure missions are successfully met on the battlefield and during times of disaster recovery at home and abroad. This annual event brings together end users to have the conversations that will ultimately shape the next generation of communications evolution."

TCS premier sponsors participating at the event include Acumentrics, a leader in Rugged AC and DC uninterruptible power supplies (RUPS) for military; Cisco, the leading networking solutions provider and producer of hubs, routers and switches for networks and data systems worldwide; AvL Technologies, specializing in the design, development, and manufacture of mobile satellite antenna/positioner systems; and WaveStream, a designer and manufacturer of next generation solid-state power amplifiers for mission-critical defense and broadcast satellite communications systems.
